

THE PILGRIM WAY

St Columba: from Ireland to Iona
Led by Rev David Denniston

Saturday Seminar 18 November
10.30am to 12 noon
(Coffee and tea available from 10am)

St Cuthbert's Parish Church
5 Lothian Rd. Edinburgh. EH1 2EP
(on the corner of Lothian Rd and King's Stables Rd)

Following a short time of opening worship (based on themes relating to St Columba), we will spend some time reflecting on the life and mission of St Columba: from Ireland to Iona - The Exiled Evangelist.

Everyone is welcome !

www.st-cuthberts.net/pilgrim_way.php

fb: @PilgrimWaySpirituality

St Cuthbert's Parish Church
5 Lothian Rd. Edinburgh. EH1 2EP

St Cuthbert's Church is in the centre of Edinburgh on the corner of Lothian Road and King's Stables Road.

It is at the western-most end of Princes Street Garden's, right under the Castle Rock, and just behind St John's Episcopal Church.

There are entrances into the churchyard from Princes Street, West Princes Street Gardens, Kings Stables Road and Lothian Road.

Vehicular access is from King's Stables Road.

The church is roughly equidistant from Haymarket and Waverley Stations.

There are numerous bus routes that pass nearby, as does the tram.

St Cuthbert's Website is <http://www.st-cuthbert.net>

